

R0.71Q Quantitative analyticity retains radius, anchor, truncation, and cover taxes

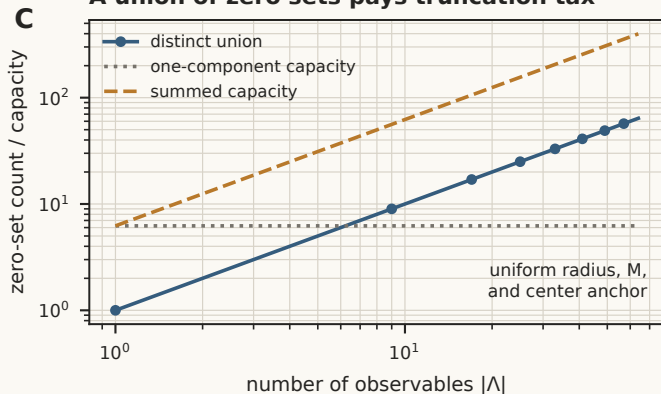

Complex-time radius is a strong-norm scale

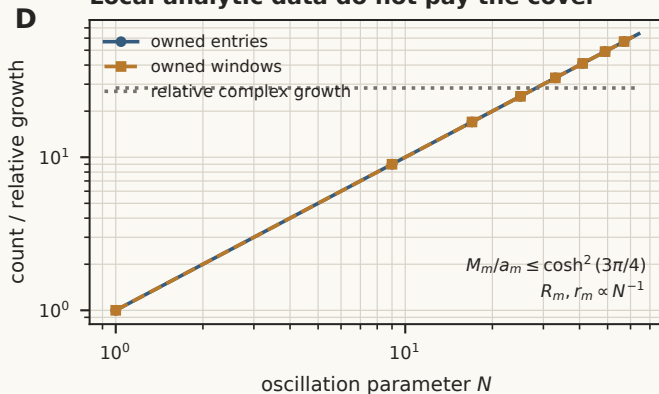

Anchor logarithm is necessary and sharp

A union of zero sets pays truncation tax

Local analytic data do not pay the cover

Finite conditional audit. Panels B-D are analytic counterfamilies, not Navier-Stokes trajectories.